RE: ANTI-SPAM Legislation – Consent to receive electronic communications.

On July 1, 2014 Canada's anti-spam legislation came in to effect. OAO is required to obtain consent to communicate electronically with members.

OAO uses commercial electronic messages as the main communication vehicle to update and inform members on OAO initiatives and programs in areas of advocacy, community, education and governance and CAO through associated national membership.

Electronic publications sent to OAO members include: E-blasts, E-vites, and President's Reports and Notices.

To consent to receiving electronic communications from the OAO, please sign and complete the line below.

I, Doctor _____ College # _____
First name Last name preferred e-mail _____ consent to receive OAO electronic communications.

Signature _____

You may withdraw consent at any time by sending an email to info@optom.on.ca or by selecting the UNSUBSCRIBE option found in our published messages.
